E. Non-refundable payment and transfer acknowledgment

Vendor registration fees are non-refundable but transferable. A vendor may request in writing to transfer its paid registration to another eligible business or another available festival date. All transfers require advance written approval by the Festival, are subject to availability, and must be requested before the vendor's originally scheduled participation date. A request alone does not complete a transfer. If the Festival cancels or materially changes the event, the separately stated event-change terms and applicable law govern.

[ ] I understand that paid vendor registration is non-refundable, and that transfers are subject to the written approval process described above.

F. Applicant acknowledgment

[ ] I certify that the information above is accurate, I am authorized to apply on behalf of this business, and I have reviewed and agree to the attached Vendor Participation Agreement. I understand that application approval, event dates, setup options, and booth assignment remain subject to confirmation.
